OVERVIEW

Go places with TESOL

The Graduate Certificate in TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) will help graduates develop the skills and knowledge needed to teach English as a second language in a variety of contexts both in Australia and overseas. Comprehensive online theoretical units with up-to-date and interactive content are combined with face-to-face practicum units, ensuring our graduates are able to apply new knowledge to classroom practice.

OUTCOMES

Outcome

39296QLD Graduate Certificate in TESOL

Upon successful completion of the program you will be able to teach English language courses across a range of sectors.

Job prospects within Australia

- Work within the ELICOS sector (English Language Intensive Courses for Overseas Students)
- Work within the AMEP (Adult Migrant Education Program)
- Work within the SEE program (Skills for Education and Employment)
- English language component of Workplace English Language and Literacy (WELL) program

(NB: Registered Training Organisations in the Vocational Education and Training (VET) sector may require additional qualifications such as TAE40110 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment. In Australia, accepted TESOL qualifications are defined by NEAS (National English Language Training Accreditation Scheme - <http://www.neas.org.au/home/>) for ELICOS and AMEP.)

Job prospects overseas

- Private English language schools for adults
- High schools and primary schools as a teaching assistant (provided you have the necessary country-specific qualifications)
- Private lessons and small group lessons.

(NB: Other qualifications may be necessary in other countries in certain TESOL contexts)

UNITS

Units

Each of the 4 units in the Graduate Certificate in TESOL addresses extensive and in-depth theoretical and practical topics. We emphasise hands-on teaching supervised by experienced trainers and underpin this with relevant and practical theoretical knowledge. If you want a graduate level TESOL qualification that covers TESOL theory with a substantial practicum, then this is the course for you.
