Looking for a career with Heart?

Provide personal care and support to people in the aged community or those living with dementia or a disability. We will teach you how to work one on one with elderly people to maximise independence and build wellbeing. You will learn to work legally and ethically with a diverse range of people and help them maintain a better quality of life. This course is suitable for people with no previous experience, as well as those who work in a related field and want to formalise their existing skills in community work, aged care, disability, or individual support.

FULL FEES | $3,470
This is the total cost of the course.

Got a question? Enquire about your full fee study options

SUBSIDISED | $754
The Queensland Government will offset the cost of study for eligible students. You will still need to pay for a portion of your study costs. The amount above is what you will need to pay.

CONCESSION | $172
You are eligible for the concession price of a course if you are eligible for subsidised training, and are listed on an Australian Government Low Income Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card, if you are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, you hold a Department of Veterans’ Affairs Pensioner Concession Card, or if you have a disability. Further information about concessions.
If you want to go on to further study at university, TAFE Queensland has a pathway option to get you there. In many cases, completing one of our diplomas will give you a full year of credit towards a degree with one of our partner universities. That means cutting down the amount of time you need to complete your degree, or even enrolling straight into the second year of your university course.
