OVERVIEW

Master the art of sign language

Our Auslan course will open up the channels of communication for families of the hearing impaired, members of the deaf community or their workplace colleagues. Whether it is simply saying hello, finger spelling your name or counting, sign language bridges two different worlds. This course offers an advanced understanding of historical trends and issues within the deaf community. Participants will also gain higher training in AUSLAN, recognising the characteristics of signs, and gain the ability to give routine information at home, in the workplace or ...more online
